Employment Privacy Policy

Broughton Anglican College is bound by the National Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act. The College may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to Schools' operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

Collection of Personal Information

Personal information is collected from applicants to employment positions at the College that is relevant to professional qualifications, skill and work experience.

In relation to personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors, the primary purpose of this collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which the College uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- in administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be;
- for insurance purposes;
- to satisfy the School's legal obligations, for example, in relation to Child Protection Legislation.

Use of Personal Information

This information is used to fill open positions within the College as the need arises. Information provided to the College in respect to an application for employment will be kept by the College for a period of six months, after which the documentation of unsuccessful applicants will be properly disposed of. Applications will not be returned to the applicant, unless specifically requested in writing.

Disclosure of information

From time to time it may be necessary to disclose personal information in the course of the employment process. An example of this may be contacting the referees supplied to provide a work related reference.

Management and security of personal information

Broughton Anglican College will use all reasonable security measures in place in our physical facilities to protect against the loss, misuse or alteration of information that we have collected from employment applicants. The College has in place steps to protect the personal information it holds from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and pass worded access rights to computerised records.

Under the Privacy Act the National Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee record. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to the School's treatment of an employee record, where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between the College and the staff member. Further information can be obtained by contacting the School Bursar or by visiting The Office of the Federal Privacy Commissioner.

EMPLOYMENT PRIVACY POLICY

1. In applying for this position you will be providing Broughton Anglican College with personal information. We can be contacted by mail to PO BOX 438, Campbelltown NSW 2560, by Email to reception@broughton.nsw.edu.au, or by phone on 4633 8365.
2. If you provide us with personal information, for example your name and address or information contained on your resume, we will collect the information in order to assess your application.
3. You agree that we may store this information for six (6) months.
4. You may seek access to your personal information that we hold about you if you are unsuccessful for the position. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others.
5. We will not disclose this information to a third party without your consent.
6. We are required to conduct a criminal record check, collect information, regarding whether you are or have been the subject of an AVO and certain criminal offences, under Child Protection Law.
7. If you provide us with the personal information of others, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the College and why, that they can access that information if they wish, that the College does not usually disclose the information to third parties and that we may store their information for six (6) months.

I have read and understand the above Employment Privacy Policy.
